Ex.No 1 WORKING WITH BASIC OPERATIONS

Creating and Sending a new e-mail

Aim:

To create and send a new email

Algorithm:

Step 1: Start the process.

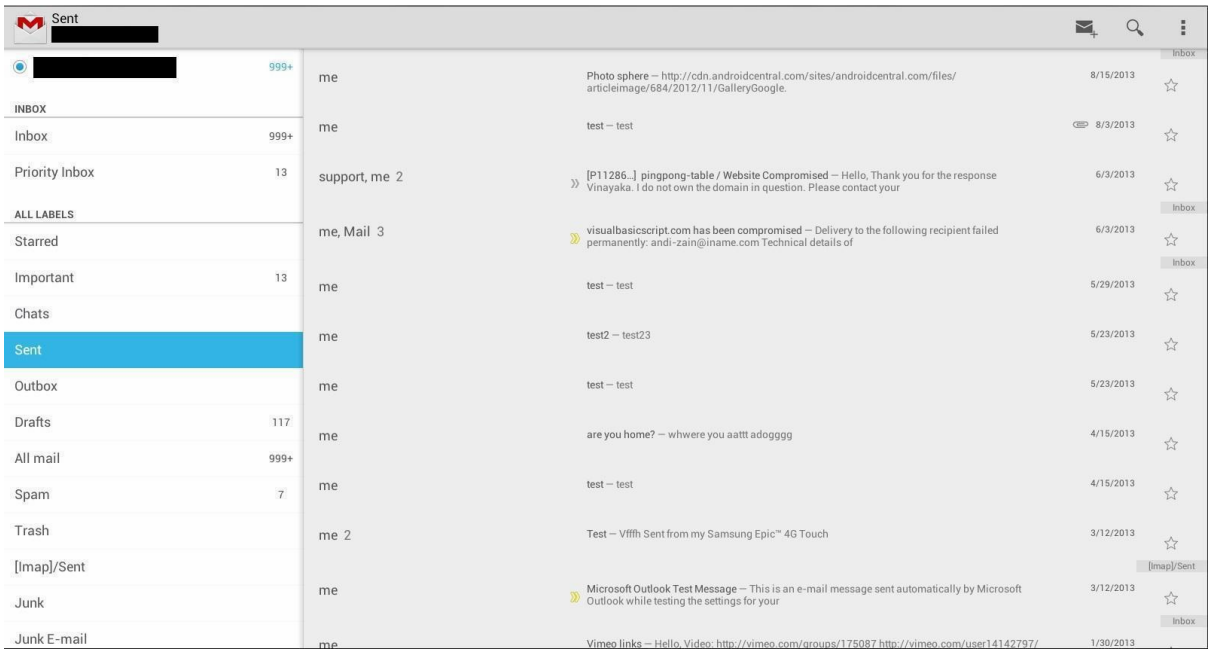

Step 2: Sign into your email account.

Step 3: Compose a new email and send to the required email address.

Step 4: Verify that the mail has been sent in your sent items folder.

Step 5: Stop the process.

Output:

Result:

Thus the email has been created and sent successfully.

forward an email message

Aim: To Forward an email message

Algorithm:

Step 1: Start the process.

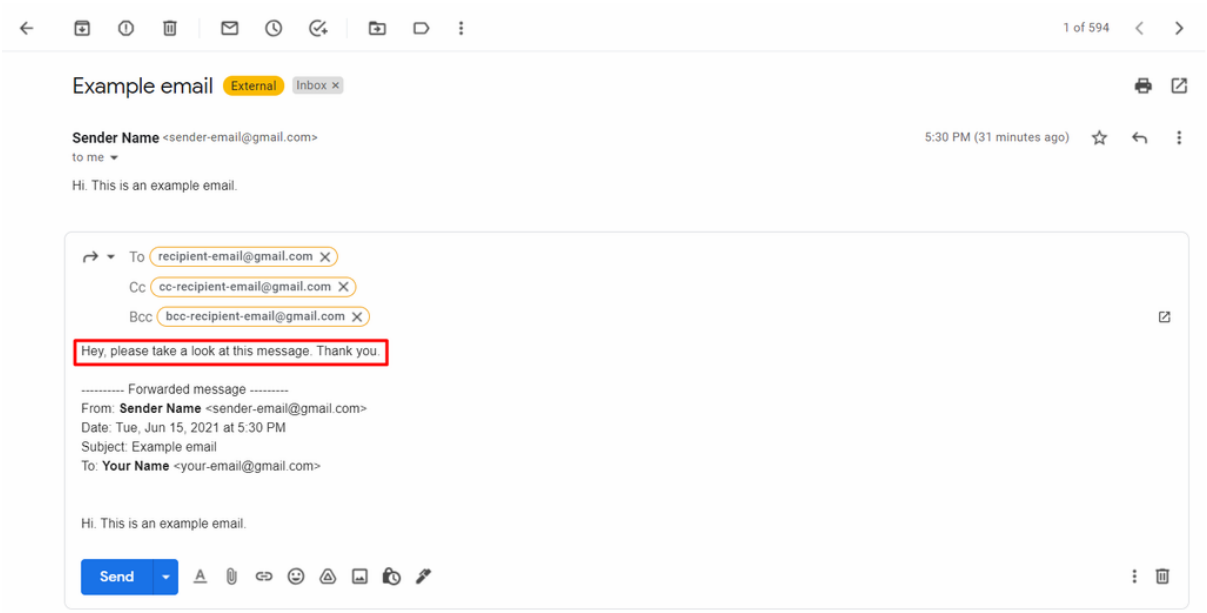

Step 2: Click forward to send an message.

Step 3: Type the required email address in TO field.

Step 4: Click send to send the mail after verifying.

Step 5: Stop the process.

Output:

Result:

Thus the email has been forwarded successfully

Reply to an email message

Aim: To reply to an email message

Algorithm:

Step 1: Start the process.

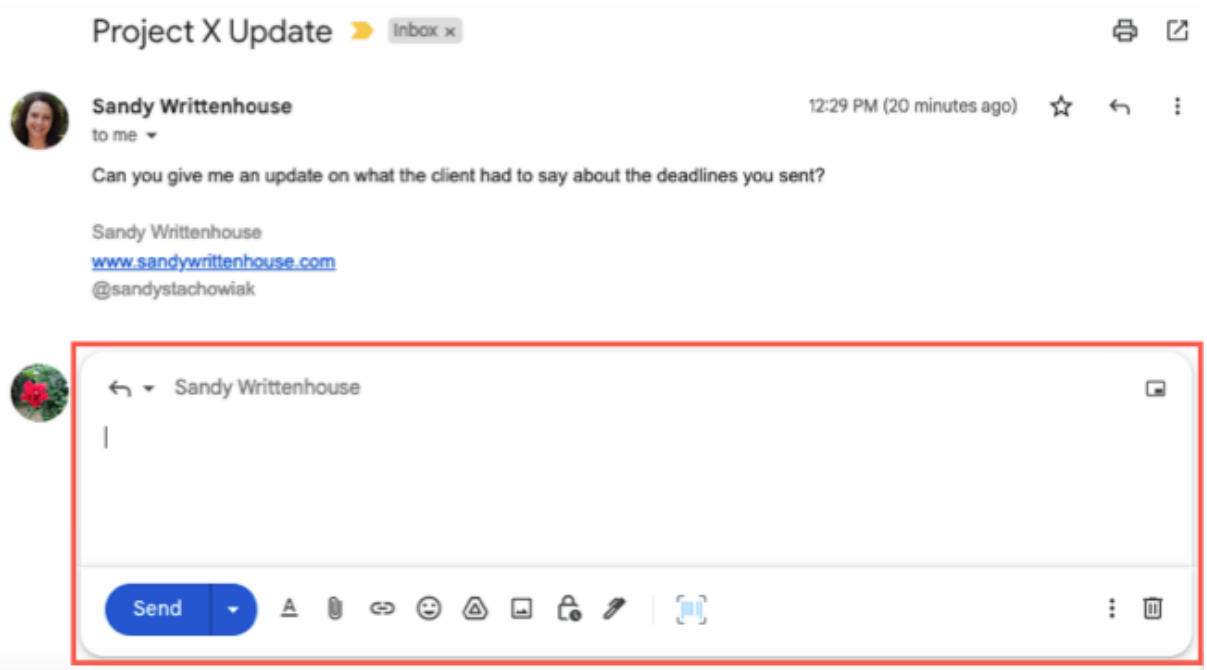

Step 2: Click reply to send an reply message.

Step 3: Type the required message

Step 4: Click send to send the message after verifying.

Step 5: Stop the process.

Output:

Result:

Thus the email has been replied successfully

Sorting and Searching emails

Aim: To sort and search emails.

Algorithm:

Step 1: Start the process.

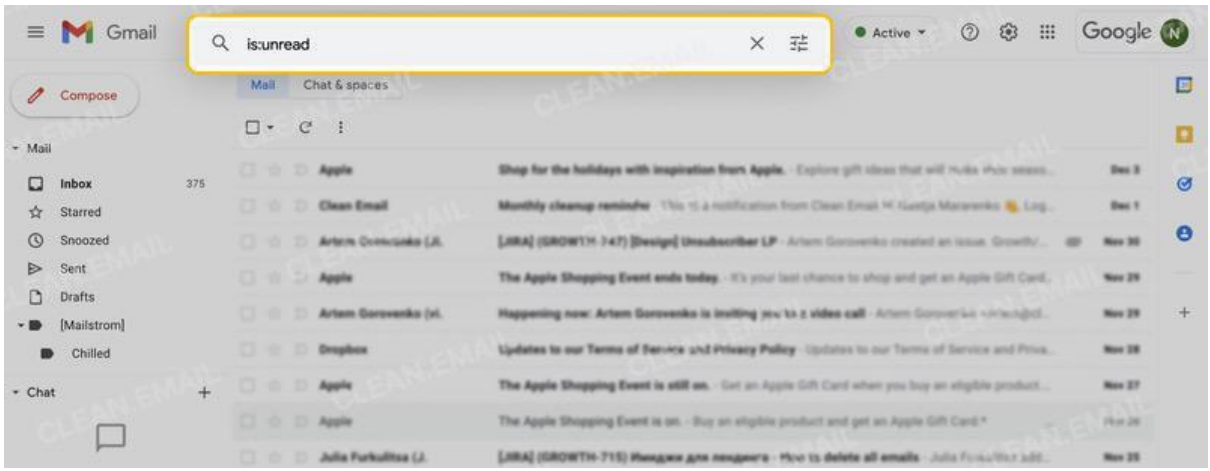

Step 2: Click the filter icon on the right-hand side of the Gmail search box to open the Gmail search pannel.

Step 3: Sort emails in gmail inbox by date, from, subject, name, last name, by sender, newest,oldest,unread.

Step 4: Sort and Search by required type.

Step 5: Stop the process.

Output:

Result:

Thus the email has been Sorted and Searched successfully